Art. II. Sec. 1.—The objects of this organization shall be mutual helpfulness, a wider acquaintance among its members, and the promotion of every good work looking toward the higher development, the broader culture of its members, and the betterment of humanity; also the desire to add to the already accumulated funds for a club house home.

Sec. 2.—The departments shall consist of art, music, education, household economics, civics, forestry, justice, social.

Art. III. Sec. 1.—The officers shall be: a president, two vice presidents, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer, auditor and parliamentarian, who shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, excepting the corresponding secretary, who shall be appointed by the president.

Sec. 2.—The above named officers shall constitute the executive board, and their duties are defined in Roberts Rules of Order.

Sec. 3.—Each of said officers shall make a written report to each annual meeting, which report shall be confined to actual work and recommendations.

Sec. 4.—Each department above named shall elect a chairman who shall also be a director, and the organization by virtue of such chairmanship.

Sec. 5.—The officers and directors shall constitute a board of management.

Art. IV. Sec. 1.—Names of persons for membership in the organization shall be presented to the executive board in writing, and such application shall be endorsed by three members of the organization who are personally acquainted with the applicant.

Sec. 2.—All applications for membership shall be filed upon by the board of management and when approved by such board the applicant may become a member by paying the annual dues.

Sec. 3.—Each member of the organization shall enroll in one or more of the departments.

Art. V. Sec. 1.—The annual dues shall be $2.50, payable at least one month before the annual meeting, and no member shall be entitled to vote before her dues are paid.

Sec. 2.—All members in arrears for dues at the end of the year shall be dropped from the roll of membership.

Art. VI. Sec. 1.—Five regular meetings of this federation shall be held during each year, and such special meetings as may be called by the president or on the written request of any three directors.

Sec. 2.—At the discretion of the board of management or on motion at a regular business meeting, one or more meetings may be open to resident guests.

Art. VII. The constitution and by-laws may be amended at any business meeting by a two-thirds vote of those present, provided that notice in writing of such amendment has been given at a previous regular meeting.

The by-laws of the federation shall be read at the annual meeting, and the other four meetings the first Thursday in June each year, and the other four meetings the first Thursday of October, December, February and April.

The order of business at the annual meeting shall be: Call to order, report of previous meeting, appointment of committees, election of officers, address of retiring president, miscellaneous business.

At the annual meeting each retiring officer shall read her annual report, which shall be filed with and become the property of the federation. In discussions following any paper or report or on any business matter before the federation, no member shall speak longer than five minutes at a time nor more than twice on any one point except by permission of the federation.
